A COMPARISON OF ADVENTISM AND EVANGELICAL CHRISTIANITY

CLEARLY, THE BIBLE TEACHES that the body of Christ is one church expressed through many local churches affiliated with various denominations. There should be no competition between those churches that stand united on the fundamentals of the faith. Together, we are the church. However, we are also exhorted in the Scriptures to warn people of those so-called churches who preach a different gospel than the gospel of grace clearly taught in the New Testament. It is in this spirit that Dale Ratzlaff comes to Lincoln to share the truth concerning the teachings of Seventh-day Adventism. This seminar will equip any believer to answer commonly asked questions regarding the beliefs of Adventism and will provide practical guidance for those seeking to move away from Adventist teachings to a gospel of grace.

—Bryan Clark, Pastor, Lincoln Berean Church

SEMINAR PRESENTER

DALE RATZLAFF was a fourth generation Seventh-day Adventist and pastored in that denomination 13 years. Near the end of his doctoral program at the Adventist seminary, Pastor Ratzlaff did an in-depth study of the Adventist doctrine of the investigative judgment and the cleansing of the heavenly sanctuary, which Adventists teach started in 1844. He became convinced that this doctrine could not be supported by Scripture, was contrary to clear biblical teaching, and undermined the new covenant gospel of grace. As he could no longer teach this doctrine in clear conscience, Dale Ratzlaff and his wife, Carolyn, left the Adventist denomination. Dale Ratzlaff is the author of Sabbath in Christ, The Cultic Doctrine of Seventh-day Adventism, Truth about Adventist "Truth" and Truth Led Me Out. He is founding editor of Proclamation! and serves on the board of Life Assurance Ministries. Dale and Carolyn—his wife of 52 years—live in Peoria, Arizona, and have two married sons and four grandchildren.
